Other links that might be useful (there are a few that whilst not entirely useful to recruitment are certainly in keeping with our Pug obsession)

www.jobsite.co.uk/bemyinterviewer

Really good link from our good friends at Jobsite. Try answering by shouting at your screen as a Welsh Hippy or a cuckolded sparrow

www.nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk

Proving Dave and gang DO love us all!

www.rec.uk.com

Our governing body and what a sterling job they all do; without them the cowboys would run amok and the indians would never get the reservations they deserve.

www.cv.library.com

Some of the best customer service we have ever received and a site packed full of useful tips and jobs all run from a small garden shed just off the M3. Amazing.
